Having welcomed attendees Education Minister congratulated 28 teachers (10 primary school, 10 math, and eight Azerbaijani language and literature teachers) on passing to the next level of the competition, and wished every success to them.

The Minister underlined the Best General Secondary School and Best Teacher competitions, which conducted in accordance with the presidential orders gigned in 2007, have been held for four year years demonstrate the rattention and carehof the Azerbaijani government to the education and educators. He informed that in the current year 425 teachers have participated in the competition and 21217 of them passed to the next level of the majority of teachers are primary school (57 people) and English language (35) teachers.

According to the Minister in comparison with past years, this year there was established just one Commission per subject. He estimated this as a very useful method for objective chose of teachers, and expressed assurance that Expert Commission will be impartial in its nestimation and will assess participants in accordance with the results of collective discussion.

Furfurther, the Minister noted the relevant timetable for attending the teacher's classes was preprepared, and participants will be invited to the Ministryethe day before of test lessons to become acquainted with conditions of schools where the test lessons will be organized. He also gave information on the procedure for the definition of the theme of dessons. Furthermore, he noted the dessons will be assessed on 12 criterions, and one teacher will be allowed taking part in the lesson of other. The MiniMinister added that all lessons will be filmed, and the commission's idecision with announce after analysis of the lesson. According to the Minister, participants who will dissatisfy with the commission's decision may address a written request to the Ministry within three days.

The Thei Ministere noted that after this level with complete heach teacher will give 0 and 0 uminute presentation at the Ministry about the main directions of its activity, success, educational problems its of offers. The final score of the teachers will be defined by adding total scores gained by them in each level.

At Aththe rend there were ranswered to questions for teachers and was held a discussion ron to ther issues connected with the competition.