

---

From March to December 2021, 34 short-term vocational trainings were launched. 29 of these vocational trainings have been completed and 5 are currently ongoing.

A total of 800 people were involved in the vocational trainings.

More than 30 per cent of the unemployed graduates who completed the vocational training got a job after the training.