From March to December 2021, 34 short-term vocational trainings were launched. 29 of these vocational trainings have been completed and 5 are currently ongoing.
A total of 800 people were involved in the vocational trainings.
More than 30 per cent of the unemployed graduates who completed the vocational training got a job after the training.