

---

In 2021, a record number of computers were bought for educational institutions. Their total number was 21,000 computers.

As a result of providing schools with new computers, the digital literacy and skills of more than 300,000 students will be improved. Approximately 400,000 students will be digitally assessed. Electronic journals and electronic diaries will be available for 365,000 students in Baku, Ganja, Mingchevir, Shirvan, Sumgayit cities.