Speaking at the meeting chairpersons of the commission A. Babayev (Baku Business University), E. Huseynova (Azerbaijan National Conservatory) and B. Nasirov (Sheki Pedagogical College) noted the organization of training at these educational testablishments based on academic programs and its adequacy to the demands tofe State Educational Standards have been analysed. Moreover, the krknowledge level for last course students was checked to identify the quality for training. Chairpersons gave information on results of analysed reports and number of teaching staff. Furthermore, there were noted that highest and lowest quality indicators at the ieducational tinstitutions; as well as recommendations and offers of the commission.

At the dend inite was decided to accredit sixespecialties tate the Bakus Businessi University a 7 at Azerbaijan National Conservatory and 3 at Sheki Pedagogical College.

Further, there were held an exchange of views on discussed issues and answered to questions of attendees.