The Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev paid a visit to Sabirabad district on January 24.

At first, the Minister of Education visited the monument to the great leader Heydar Aliyev and laid flowers at it.

Within the framework of the visit, the opening ceremony of a full secondary school named after Mir Mirhusein Mammadov in the village of Nizami of the Sabirabad district was held after a major renovation.

The ceremony was attended by the Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev, members of the National Assembly Kamal Jafarov and Ramin Mammadov, head of Sabirabad district executive power Sirajeddin Jabbarov and head of Sabirabad district education department Pahlivan Garayev.

Participants of the event got acquainted with the conditions created in the school.

It was noted that the newly renovated school is designed for 624 seats.

There are 19 classrooms, three laboratory rooms, two technology rooms, two informatics rooms, a cabinet for pre-military training of youth, a room for pre-school preparation, an assembly hall for 96 seats, a gymnasium, a library and canteen with 100 seats in total at the school.

Then the STEAM Center was opened at Mirza Alekber Sabir Secondary School No. 1 in Sabirabad.

After familiarizing themselves with the conditions created at the Center, the participants were informed that the Center has a regional character. Thus, schoolchildren not only from the villages of Sabirabad district, but also from Saatli and other neighboring districts will benefit from this Center.

It should be noted that the STEAM project, which currently covers over 100,000 pupils across the country, is scheduled to expand next school year.
