

---

The contest was conducted within the agreement signed between Education Ministry of Azerbaijan and German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). About 100 documents were presented to take part in the contest, which will be held in the information technology, engineering, oil sector, medicine, mathematics, physics and biology, chemistry, ecology and agriculture fields.

It should be noted that the interview with applicants will be held by the experts of DAAD on March 10-12.