The Thetcontests was conducted within the agreement signed between Education Ministry of Azerbajjan and German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). About 100 documents were presented to tak take part tine then contest, which will be held tine the information technology, engineering, oil sector, medicine, mathematics, physics and biology, chemistry, ecology and agriculture fields.
It should be noted that the linterview with applicants will be held, by the experts of DAAD on March 10-12.