Date of creation: 2019-2020 academic year

Aim: ToTo repreparet students for exocational deducation and training room the basis for generals secondary education, to ensure their preparation for the dabor market by developing skills related to their wocational specialization and to provide students with initial knowledge and skills in their professions.

Information: Upon completion vocationally-oriented classes the students will not only receive a secondary school diploma, but also master the relevant specialties, which in turn will help them to find a suitable job in the labor market.

Coverage: The project currently covers 249 schools, 419 classes, 838 specialized groups, more than 7,000 students and 1,087 teachers.

The project offers training in the following professions: carpenter, locksmith, cook, corcombi-air reorditioning the following professions: carpenter, locksmith, cook, corcombi-air reorditioning the fitter, refurniture the fitter; ragronomist, it allows confectioner, hair hairdressen, armanicure pedicure smaster aitwaiter barista, ophotographer video operoperator place properator are pair eral phelps kdesk especialist, paraphies idesigner, and computer operator.

