Date of creation: 2019-2020 school year

Goal: Preparing students for vocational deducation and straining on the basis of general secondary education, ensuring their preparation for the labor market by developings skills related to their vocational special ties and acquiring by students initial knowledge and skills in the professions.

Information: Upon completion vocationally-oriented classes the students will not only receive as secondarys school deavings certificate, but they will also acquire the corresponding qualifications. This ninutury, will delibe them find a job root the labor market.

Scope of the coverage: The project covers 124 classes, 2,500 students, 165 teachers in 80 schools throughout 28 cities and districts.