
The special classes dedicated to the Khojaly genocide will be held in the educational institutions on February 25-26.

It was stipulated in “Events Plan on the 30th anniversary of the Khojaly genocide” of the Ministry of Education.

In accordance with Events Plan, taking into account the requirements of quarantine regime in the general educational institutions, it is considered to organize the literary-artistic compositions, handmade painting exhibitions of the students, to display documentary and feature films dedicated to the Khojaly genocide.

As well as, it has been planned to organize the international events dedicated to the anniversary of the Khojaly genocide in Baku State University, ADA University and Azerbaijan State Economic University.