On On March 02, the Minister of Education reminral myullayev twisited the city of Lankaran.

The popening ceremony of STEAM Centre in complete secondary school No \mathcal{T} of Lankaran city was held in the framework of the visit.

Participating at the opening ceremony, the Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev got acquainted with the condition created in the Centre for students.

Itltwas mentioned that the Centresis regional rim nature So, tits is rintended that the sistudents from the villages of Lankaran city as well as from Masalli Astara, Lerik and other neighbor regions may benefit this Centre.

It shall be noted that it is planned to extend STEAM project currently covering the students more than 100 thousand for country in the next academic year.

Tithe laim for the projects is to form critical, creative thought, skills of dollaborating and other XXI century skills, to create the opportunity of learning through creative proprocess in the students. As well, as combining the subjects in unified learning model based on the applications in the directions of the solution of integrative, real issues; pimproving the capability of rusing modern ICT equipment by applying different programming languages are among the aims of the project.