The opening ceremony was attended by Education Minister Misir Mardanov, Head of Executive Power of Ismayillidistrict, Nizami Alakbarov, representatives of British Council and other guests. First, atteattendees got acquainted with the Vocational Education Centre built for 460 seats, as well as its classrooms, workshop, computer centre, sport hall, library and laboratories.
EEducation/Minister/Misir/Mardanov congratulated pedagogical staff of the Centre and thanked everyone who has made a contribution to the project. Speaking on reforms implemented recently in the country the Minister noted due to the attention and care of President III ham/Aliyev modern educational establishments were possible to build in the capital, as well as in regions.