The The meeting swascattended by Education Ministers Misiar Mardanov, Finance Minister Samir Sharifov, and Deputy Head of the Cabinet of Ministers Department Gurban/Amirov, as well as heads of higher educational institutions.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov evelcomed the lattendees and gave appresentation on the titheme of "Current situation connected with the application of new funding mechanisms in the higher education, initial results and proposals." According to the Minister within the President Ilham Aliyev's ordeorder "on p'Application Nof New Eugling Mechanisms Lat Higher Educational institutions" ussued on February 10,22010, since 2010-2011 school year, the funding of higher educational institutions at the exexpense of the state budget has been implemented based on per capita funding left informed that worlworkers lof the Ministries Eof Education, Finance, and Economic Development are holding regular meetings to discuss the application of new funding mechanisms in higher education. Moreover, normative documents were prepared within the application of new funding mechanisms. He also gave info information to the acceptance plan approved according to the State order for the bachelor and master's levels.

According to the Minister funds allocated to the Ministry of Education to fund staff training were distributed to the account of 33 universities. The Minister said that regardless of the form of property and their subordination, equal conditions were created for all higher educational establishments due to the the application of new funding mechanisms, was well as laewide range of options for entrants and statuents to choose from MM Mardanov underlined the assistance of the Ministries of Education and FinEinance to universities within new funding mechanisms and noted there were prepared the proper documents on paying off tuition fee of the refugee students at the expense of state budget.

The Minister noted that the number of students admitted to universities in accordance with the statistated orders has decreased due to the new funding mechanism. However, the number of students adradmitted on the paid education bases has increased. According to him the funds allocated to staff salaries from the extra-budgetary expenditures will be increased. Furthermore, he gave information on the initial results of the application of new funding mechanisms, expressed its ideas on staff training issues, and made some proposals.

FinaFinance Minister Samira Sharifov moted: the importance of cholding regular meetings tat the Ministry of Education connected with the application of the new funding mechanism. According to him, eextra-budgetary expenditures for universities and spending for the staff training should be organized moreofeefficiently. From this viewpoint, the reminded the seminar/meeting of chief accountants of universities that was held with the participation of officials of the Ministries of Education and Finance, and underlined that the Ministry of Finance with further provide any lassistance to support the development of universities.

At the end the attendees exchanged views around of the discussed issue.