

---

On April 13, the Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev was in the Azerbaijan State University of Economics (UNEC).

Firstly, the Memorial Complex erected in the memory of martyrs was visited and laid down wreath in front of it and their memories was commemorated.

Then the Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev got acquainted with 7/24 library and Extern Center of UNEC. The Minister was detailed informed of reading hall, the CerCenter Emin Amrullayev reviewed hybrid auditoriums created in UNEC. The Minister was informed that 50 hybrid auditoriums were currently operating and 50 auditoriums would also be launched soon in the University.

The opening of museum newly created in UNEC was held in the framework of the visit. The Minister was informed of the establishment date of UNEC and got acquainted with the historical documents.

Emin Amrullayev participated in the opening of "Bloomberg" financial laboratory that began to act in UNEC for the first time in our country. It was stated that the laboratory consisting of 12 "Bloomberg" terminals will allow UNEC to have the same opportunities as the advanced universities of the world in this field and to create qualified research environment in the university.

After getting acquainted with the conditions created in UNEC, the Minister of Education met with young teachers and students.

In the meeting with the students, rector Adalat Muradov emphasized that the role of master students would be further increased in the education institution in order to transform UNEC to the research university.

The Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev spoke about the works done in the direction of higher education development in the country, the future priorities, the state support for the students, the main points of "State Program for the Education of Youth at Prestigious Universities of Foreign Countries for 2022-2026". Advising the the students to improve their individual skills, to be more interested in the scientific researches, to be active in the innovative projects, the Minister stressed that all opportunities in this field were provided at UNEC.

Then the questions interesting for students were answered.

---

---

In the meeting with the young teachers, rector Adalat Muradov stated that the 30 percent of teachers was currently consisting of young teachers in the university and this process would be proceeded.

Speaking about the necessity of involving young teachers to teaching, Emin Amrullayev said that the positive tendencies have recently emerged in this direction. Emin Amrullayev addressed the role of young teachers in increasing the quality of education, factors affecting the rating of universities, forming personnel potential. He gave information on the reforms and works conducted in this direction in the field of education.

At the end of the meeting, the Minister of Education listened to the proposals of young teachers and answered their questions.