

---

A delegation of professors and students from the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague and Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic, is on a visit to our country.

As part of the visit, the delegation visited Aghdam. The guests witnessed live the consequences of Armenian vandalism during the occupation.

After receiving detailed information about the history of Aghdam city, the guests were introduced to the ongoing or planned work on the reconstruction of the city.