
Azerbaijani students have successfully participated in the 10th European Mathematical Cup, organized by the Croatian Association of Young Talented Mathematicians. The 10th European Mathematical Cup was attended by over 100 students from 31 countries.

According to the results (<https://emc.mnm.hr/latest-news/>), 4 Azerbaijani students were awarded diplomas of II degree, and 4 students were awarded diplomas of III degree.

Thus, 10th grade students of the Physics, Mathematics and Informatics biased Lyceum under the Ministry of Education Jalil Huseynov, Fidan Garayeva, 11th grade student Toghrul Abbasov and 10th grade student of the Turkish Solidarity Foundation Baku Turkish Lyceum Fidan Jafarli received a 2nd degree diploma. A 10th grade student of Physics, Mathematics and Informatics biased Lyceum under the Ministry of Education Anar Mehdiyev, an 11th grade students of the same Lyceum Muhammad Nuriyev, Amin Jafarzadeh, and an 11th grade student of Baku Secondary School No 272 Javad Ismayilzadeh received a 3rd degree diploma.

We congratulate our students and wish them success.