MMinister Misir Mardanov expressed bis satisfaction with the meeting guests at the Ministry of Ed Education. According to Minister more attention is being paid in Azerbaijan to providing computer networking service to educational establishments, as well as improving internet accessibility of schools. Moreover, anti-virus programs are being used to ensure the internal network security.

YeYevgenyaKaspersky, ECEO of Kasperskya Laboratory anti-virus Confinformed that the company headed by him specializes in internet security solutions and expressed his views on advantages of using licelizensed security against computer viruses. Talking about projects implemented by them inamany countries, Mr. Kaspersky gave detailed information on services provided by Kaspersky Laboratory and expressed an interest in forming partnership with different state bodies of Azerbaijan.

NoNoting the services provided by Kaspersky Laboratory are lattracting interest. Mr. Mardanov experssed belief in positive impact of discussions that will be held with the relevant experts of the Ministry roul. Confuture cooperation. He runderlined the importance fof strong protection of Internet networks at schools and gave information on works done in this field.