

---

Having expressed his pleasure at seeing the guest at the Ministry of Education, Minister Mardanov noted that relations existing between Germany and Azerbaijan in the education area have been developed over recent years. Noting 45 students have participated in lectures conducted by the Department for Azerbaijan History of Humboldt University, Eva-Maria Auch underlined that 12 of them have successfully passed the exam. She also gave information on teaching of Azerbaijani history and culture at the university, and added that 15 students will visit Azerbaijan in September of the current year. She touched upon the organization of the visit, and noted the importance of close acquaintance of students with Azerbaijan. Having spoken on exchange of doctoral candidates the guest expressed her views on developing of cooperation in the vocational education field.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov noted that the relevant assistance for the activity of Azerbaijan History Department of Humboldt University will be continued and recommended to organize the the trip of 15 students who will visit Azerbaijan in September to regions of the country. Minister informed that lecturers from Azerbaijan will visit Humboldt University, and the department will be provided with textbooks and extra learning materials. He also noted the importance of developing partnership with Germany in the vocational education field, and underlined the willingness of the Ministry to provide any support to implement the relevant proposals.

Further, the parties exchanged views on other issues of common interest.