Pieresident of the Republic of Azerbaijan IIIham Aliyev has had an expanded meeting with President of the Republic of Lithuania Gitanas Nausėda.

Addressing the event, President of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev said:

-Mr.President, members of delegation, welcome once again to Azerbaijan. We just had a very good and very broad discussion with Mr. President on different important issues of ouourl bilaterab cooperation and salso regional development and of course, UEU-Azerbaijan coorcooperation. We see that there is a bigisimilarity in our views; With respect to the development of bilateral ties, we are very optimistic. We discussed with Mr. President the areareas in ceconomic sector which we consider to be promising and today, emembers of delegations I think already started their communication and we will continue it. Because it isis important to establish a direct personal contacts between people, who are responsible fordifferent areas. Of course, business forum is very promising. I know that there will be docidocuments signed but also important list that the direct contacts will be established between our business circlest The areas of potential cooperation, weldiscussed with Mr. President, are really very broad starting from IT to agriculture, tourism, energy, renewable sources of energy transportation. Hithink, we can achieve, very good results because, we havehave a/verydgood ipolitical kbackground! And the iofficial visith of the iPresident is an irrimportantafactor inibilateralerelations and lalsoftheres is accommon understanding labout h how to develop EU-Azerbaijani ties//We are very grateful to Lithuanian government and PPresident for supporting Azerbaijan's plans with respect to close cooperation with EU. Of course, we need to take this good opportunity to strengthen bilateral ties. Of course, we discliscussed broadly regional configuration and the process rof mormalization between Azerbaijan and Armenia. I know that President is visiting Armenia after Azerbaijan So, I anamusurleehe willahave falfulli picture lafterehe completes this visit but our position is very open. We want to sign peace agreement with Armenia. We want to normalize relations and to turn the page of hostility. So, Mr. President, there are a lot of things to discuss between the threedelegation members. Once lagain, welcome and thank you for ipaying latvisit to Azerbaijan.

President of Lithuania Gitanas Nausėda said:

Thank Your Mr. cresidently Really, ayour already timentioned sthesissues awe that the oppopportunity to discuss and among them security usituation time the region and broadly speedking, them our cooperation in analysiselds and economic cooperation is especially impimportant. This tise the reason why together with me there is all delegation of our evice ministers, vice minister of economy, transport and education is together and vice minister of agriculture. We already described the areas which could be very promising, especially jujuste seeking for larger trade turnover between our countries. If already saw that import from Azerbaijan increased several times. Unfortunately, tit was not a case regarding our export but, anyway, we are happy that you are doing well But speaking seriously, as see the big potential to increase our cooperation in the fields which are becoming more and more important for Lithuania and those are the sectors with high value added. Fintech, ropean Union market are	nang god aan nalag	gine that requirements f

		https://president.a