On July 8, Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev visited the Autism Center operating under "Birge va Sa?lam" (Together and Healthy) Public Union located in Nizami district of the capital.

Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev got acquainted with the conditions established in the Center.

The Director of the Center Aytan Eynalova brought to attention detailed information about the support programs provided to about 90 people with autism spectrum disorders at the Center. The minister observed visually the process of application of the programs during the training.

Later, getting acquainted with the workshop, Emin Amrullayev listened to the songs performed by the "Blue Hearts" choral group of autistic youth in "Kashalata cafe" operating inside the Center. Various plays were performed by the autistic youth of the cafe.

During the meeting, they discussed the opportunities for future cooperation between the Ministry and the Center.

Commemorative photos were taken at the end.
