
On July 6-16, the 63rd International Mathematical Olympiad was held in Oslo, the capital of Norway. Our students, having successfully participated at the Olympiad, won 1 silver, 4 bronze medals and one "Encouragement Prize".

Thus, an 11th grade student of the physics-mathematics and informatics biased lyceum under the Ministry of Education Togrul Abbasov won a silver medal, Amin Jafarzadeh a bronze medal, a 10th grade student of the same lyceum Fidan Garayeva and Jalil Huseynov won a bronze medal, an 11th grade student of the Technical and Humanitarian Lyceum No. 2 of Baku Elchin Musazadeh won a bronze medal, an 11th grade student of a full secondary school No. 72 of Baku Javad Ismailzadeh received an encouragement prize.

It should be noted that the Azerbaijani team ranked 34th at this prestigious Olympiad, in which 104 countries participated.

We congratulate our students and wish them further success.
