

---

The conference was attended by Minister of Education Misir Mardanov, head of Baku City Education Department Naila Rzaguliyeva, chairman of Confederation of Trade Unions of the Republic of Azerbaijan Sattar Mehbaliev, MPs Malahat Hasanova, Gular Akhmedov, executive director of PTA Tarana Sharifova, representatives of executive powers of the capital and heads of secondary schools.

The competition has been jointly organized by Baku City Education Department and Confederation of Free Trade Unions of education workers of Azerbaijan. It was held at school, district and city levels on literary, artistic and computer projects. The main goal of competition was to provide beneficial conditions for development of creative skills of talented pupils.

Speaking at the opening of the conference head of Baku City Education Department Naila Rzaguliyeva informed that thousands of pupils took part in the competition. According to her, little talents have had an opportunity to demonstrate their skill and express their opinions about national leader Heydar Aliyev within the competition. She estimated the youth policy of President, care of the President of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation, MP Mehriban Aliyeva for children as important steps taken for the future of our community.

She has thanked the Education Minister Misir Mardanov, and Chairman of Trade Unions of the Republic of Azerbaijan Sattar Mehbaliev for the care to the education of Baku. Moreover, she has thanked the Jury for the objective assessment of works presented to the competition.

Further the winners have been awarded. It was noted that pupils won the first place of the competition will receive a scholarship in the amount of 50 AZN per month during the year.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov has wished a success to pupils participated in the contest. He also thanked organizers for the organization of such an interesting event devoted to the memory of Heydar Aliyev.

Noting the national leader had always said that the talented children are our national wealth, and took care of them, the Minister underlined this policy is being successfully continued by President Ilham Aliyev. He also talked about the unexampled care of the President of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation, MP Mehriban Aliyev to children and stressed that each of us has a responsibility to protect talents. Noting the importance of revealing talented pupils the Minister underlined the responsibility of school managements from this point of view.