
On the 7th of September, the Azerbaijani Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev has met with a delegation led by Tomris Azeri, the president of the Azerbaijan Society of America (ASA).

In a meeting with a delegation from the Azerbaijan Society of America, including Americans from various fields who came to our country as part of a project to inform the international community about the Azerbaijani realities of the State Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan for Work with the Diaspora, the guests were briefed on the ongoing educational reforms and work to restore the educational infrastructure in the liberated territories.