At the beginning of the ceremony, the Minister and other attendees have been informed on the activity of School Parliament, as well as its role in grafting management skills and habits to pupils. Further, "ministers" have delivered short presentations about implemented activities. The President of the Little Academy, pupil of the IX "b" class I. Rasulzadeh talked about goals and obligations of the institution led by him. According to him, the goals of the Academy are to involve pupils in their education and science, reveal talented pupils, and serve to the development of their creative abilities and habits. Noting Education Minister Misir Mardanov has been chosen an honorary president of the Little Academy, I. Rasulzadeh presented to him the honorary presidential ribbon.

Education Minister has thanked the pupils, and congratulated teachers and pupils of school on the opening of the Little Academy. He expressed his satisfaction for being at one of the best secondary schools of the country, which has an old history and big traditions. Noting the school was reconstructed by the initiative of the first lady of Azerbaijan, MP Mehriban Aliyeva ten years ago, the Minister underlined that the overhaul of schools has begun from the school No.23. He also thanked Mrs. Aliyeva, who has graduated from this school, on behalf of the educators.

According to the Minister, parents have addressed a request to the President for reconstruction of the school and from this regard the President gave a relevant assignment. He noted based on the Presidential assignment the school will be reconstructed again.

Mr. Mardanov has positively appreciated the involvement of pupils in the school management, and wished a success in the works of School Parliament and Little Academy.

At the end, scientific works of pupils were estimated, and the best ones have been granted certificates and diplomas.
