

---

The Georgian Minister of Education and Science Mikheil Chkhenkeli has been visiting Azerbaijan since October 24.

As part of his visit, Mikheil Chkhenkeli visited the Alley of Honor, where he paid tribute to the national leader of the Azerbaijani people, Heydar Aliyev, and laid flowers on his tomb. The minister also visited the grave of academician Zarifa Aliyeva, an outstanding ophthalmologist. Then, in the Alley of Shehids (Martyrs), the memory of those who died in the struggle for the independence and territorial integrity of Azerbaijan was honored, and carnations were laid on their graves.

The minister then visited the Baku European Lyceum, familiarized himself with the conditions created there, met with the lyceum management and discussed prospects of cooperation between the two countries' general education institutions.

Mikheil Chkhenkeli also visited the Baku State University (BSU) and met with Rector Elchin Babayev. During the meeting, close cooperation relations between the BSU and Georgian higher education institutions were highlighted, and proposals for further expansion of these relations were made.

As part of the visit, the minister met with students studying Georgian language at BSU, answered their questions, and expressed satisfaction with the students' level of knowledge of the Georgian language.

On the same day, Georgian Minister of Education and Science Mikheil Chkhenkeli met with Azerbaijani Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev. During the meeting, the current state and prospects of cooperation in various areas in the field of education were discussed. The parties highly appreciated the annual exchange of textbooks between Azerbaijani language schools in Georgia and Georgian language schools in Azerbaijan.

The parties also exchanged views on improving teaching in the Georgian and Azerbaijani languages, organizing the professional development of teaching staff, as well as expanding direct ties between the higher education institutions of the two countries.