
The official Twitter account of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) has published information on the 33rd International Forum on “New Challenges in Education”, to be held in Baku.

The international forum, which will be held under the theme 'A More Education Future', will cover the topics of learning and global competencies in a digital world.

Stefania Giannini, UNESCO Deputy Director General for Education, Andreas Schleicher, special adviser to the Secretary General for Education Policy, Director for Education and Skills, Luis Pereira dos Santos, Chair of the Board of the Portuguese Institute of Educational Assessment, PISA Board Representative in Portugal, Maye Kitting, Adviser to the Estonian Ministry of Education and Research, Country Coordinator for PISE, Mario Piacentini, Senior PISE Analyst, Tracy Burns, Dirk, and the Director of the PISA Board will make presentations at the forum.

Stefania Giannini, UNESCO Deputy Director General for Education, Andreas Schleicher, Special Adviser to the OECD Secretary General for Education Policy and Director for Education and Skills, Luis Pereira dos Santos, Chair of the Board of the Portuguese Institute of Educational Assessment, PISA Board Representative in Portugal, Maye Kitting, Adviser to the General Education Department at the Estonian Ministry of Education and Research, Country Coordinator for PISE, Mario Piacentini, Senior PISE Analyst, Tracy Burns, Director of Research at the US National Center for Education and the Economy, Stéphane Vincent Lankren, OECD Senior Analyst and Deputy Director of the Centre for Educational Research and Innovation, and Mark Fuster, Analyst at the OECD Centre for Educational Research and Innovation will make presentations at the forum

Speeches by international speakers on "How to prepare students for the future?", "What should the school of the future be like?", "Global trends shaping education", "Is digitization in education the final solution?" and other topics are planned.

Please note that to participate in the international forum online until 11 November at 23:00, you can follow the relevant link: <https://bit.ly/3KJjaGh>
