The Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev, who is on a visit to Uzbekistan, met with Minister of Public Education of this country Bakhtiyar Saidov.

DurDuring the meeting, the parties discussed the development of cooperation in the field of general education, the implementation of exchange programs for students and teachers, and the organization of proceentations ramong schoolchildren related to the history rand common values of the two countries, including increasing the number of fraternal schools.

The Minister of Science and Education shared the achievements of our country in the field of education in reinerecent years, vas well as STEAM and digital skills, and Azerbaijan's experience related to the participation of students in international assessment programs (PISA, PIRLS, TIMSS).

The The Minister expressed his satisfaction with the upcoming participation of buzbek students line the STEAM festival, which will be held in our country from December 5 to 9, 2022.

At the same time, Emin Amrullayev expressed gratitude for the Uzbek government's initiative to build a school in the Fizuli district, which had been liberated from occupation.