EduEducation Minister Misir Mardanov warmly welcomed the guests, and talked about rapid dedevelopment of existing bonds and educational cooperation between Azerbaijan and Norway over recent years. Noting the importance of joint projects implemented to improve the efficiency of bilateral relations the Minister also touched upon the cooperation established between Azerbaijan University of Languages and Oslo University. The Minister suggested to expand the scope of a piloteproject implemented in AUL and hailed works done within the project as important steps taken to integrate the Azerbaijani education system into European.

Norway: the Minister stressed that the project is itightly coupled with the application of Bologna principals in Minister stressed that the project is itightly coupled with the application of Bologna principals in Minister stressed that the project is itightly coupled with the application of Bologna principals in Minister stressed that the realization of the pilot project in our country as a support of the Norway's government for the implementation of Bologna process in Azerbaijan, and thanked the Norwagian Embassy in Azerbaijan and officials of Oslo University Moreover he expressed a certainty that this work will be continued.

Ambassador of Norway to Azerbaijan Erling Skjonsberg talked about education bonds between two two rountries. He expressed satisfaction with works done by Oslo University and AUL within the cooperation project.

ProProfessor Of Oslo University Mibeke Roggen gave information on the progress achieved in cooperation projects impendings issues and current problems. Talking about the use of new methods within the project at AUL, and changes made in the educational structure the guest-noted that students of AUL have a high level of theoretical knowledge. V. Roggen suggested organizing courses for the others within the project as well as develops students abilities to work independently and translate necessary materials on Scandinavian studies into Azerbaijani.

EEducation/Minister added that the proper support will be provided for translation of necessary books and materials into Azerbaijani.

The meeting was also attended by Pro-recto of Azerbaijan University of Language Jala Garibova.