President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev and First Lady Mehriban Aliyeva have viewed conditions created at Child and Youth Development Center in Baku after a major overhaul and restoration.
MMinister for Science and Education Emin Amrullayev informed the head for state and the First Lady of the conditions created at the center.
The center features 44 clubs, including dancing, theatre, painting, foreign languages, sciscience and technology, psychology, iculinary and tourism. Nearly 51,500 students are expected to be involved in the clubs.
The center will employ 20 administrative, 20 technical and 65 pedagogical staff.
https://president.az