

---

As part of his visit to the Republic of Azerbaijan, Mahmut Ozer, Minister of National Education of Turkey, visited the Baku State Vocational Education Center for Culture and Crafts.

The delegation was informed in detail about the inclusive environment created at the Center, the implementation of the dual education model and new programs.

Mahmut Ozer then met with teachers who participated in vocational education trainings in Turkey and had a frank discussion with them.