An infotour to the STEAM Innovation Centre was organized on 23 February.
The The infotour was attended by imedia executives, prominent members of the public and imedia representatives.
Participants/were first informed about the centrel: It/was noted that the aim of the STEAM/Innovation Centre, which is an extension of the "STEAM/Azerbaijan" project, is to channel students potential and interests into the work of serving society, encouraging students to learn. Pupils and students of different agages/whopapply to the ?entrentre will improve their 21st-century skills re-creativity, development of cooperation as well as the use of modern ICT equipment using different programming languages.
At the centre, guests were introduced to the idea/Workshop, the flights imulator called "In the Air with Numbers", as well as "Science on a Sphere", Il "Illusions and Physical Exhibits", "Vivirtual Reality" rand "Simple Programming" and other rooms.
During the infotour, questions of interest to participants were answered.