

---

On March 10, the Ministry of Science and Education organized a "Novruz lecture" in the village of Aghali in Zangilan district.

"The Novruz Lecture" was attended by Deputy Minister of Science and Education Firudin Gurbanov, MPs, academics and members of the public, as well as media representatives.

The moderator of the "Novruz lecture", writer Elchin Huseinbeyli, stressed the importance of holding such an event in the village of Aghali and, after introducing the participants, declared the event open.

Deputy Minister of Science and Education Firudin Gurbanov spoke in his speech about the victory won in the 44-day Patriotic War thanks to the determination of our army, united under the "Iron Fist" of the Supreme Commander-in-Chief, President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Mr. Ilham Aliyev.

The deputy minister also noted the historical significance of holding the "Novruz Lecture" in Zangilan, which was liberated from the occupation. Firudin Gurbanov said that "Novruz lectures" have already become a tradition and that the first lecture held in Aghali was useful in terms of educating the younger generation in the spirit of patriotism and national-spiritual values.

Professor Karim Shukurov, Director of the Institute of History, then delivered a lecture entitled "From Victory to the Great Return". In his lecture, Kerim Shukurov noted that the 44-day Patriotic War opened a new era in the history of Azerbaijan.

An exchange of views on the subject followed. Other guests who spoke drew the lecture's attention to the modern infrastructure of the village of Agali.

At the end of the event, the books were donated to the library of the Aghali village secondary school.

After the lecture, trees were planted in Aghali village as part of the "Heydar Aliyev 100" tree-planting campaign.

---

At the end of the event, participants gathered around a Novruz bonfire and listened to music.