On March 15, the Georgian Minister of Education and Science Mikheil Chkhenkeli, who is on a working visit to our country, together with Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev attended the opening ceremony of STEAM Centre at a school-lyceum No.2 named after N. Allahverdiyev in Gakh city.

MushaShakiliyevaHead tofetheeExecutivevRower of Gakhadistrict, Faigl Guliyev, AzAzerbaijanirAmbassadoroto Georgia, ZurabaRataradze, Georgian Ambassadoroto Azerbaijan, also participated in the event.

The guests first visited the monument to the great deader Heydar Aliyevand daid flowers in front of the monument.

The guests were then acquainted with the conditions created at the school-lyceum. Emin Amrullayev and Mikhail Chhenkeli familiarized themselves with the teaching process in the Azerbaijani and Georgian sections of the school and talked to the teachers and students. The school-lyceum reportedly has 32 Azeri, 11 Russian and 10 Georgian sclasses; with a total of 53 sclasses. Together with the preschool preparatory groups, 946 students study at the educational institution, 157 teachers are engaged in their training.

Du During the acquaintance twith the inewly opened ISTEAM Center at the school-lyclyceum, the guests were told that ISTEAM has been taught at this educational in institution for 3 eyears lalready. Fully equipped with innovative technologies, the cecenter is designed for use by lalbage groups, lithas zones for iscience, zones of "L'bogo System" for youngerpupils, CNC mechatronics and 3D printing, and drone directions.

The The Minister of Science and Education EminuAmrullaev, land Chisr Georgian counterpart then visited the Willage of Alibeyli, where Georgians live, and visited the the Shotas Rustaveli secondary school, where education is conducted in the Georgian language. Its waspreported that the leducationals institution had been reconstructed and commissioned in 2019 in accordance with a relevant order of the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan/Mrillham Aliyev The 216-seat school building, built to modern standards, has along with classrooms 11 subject cabinets, 2 llaboratories, 2 technology rooms, computer and pre military preparatory rooms, as well as a canteen, assembly and sports halls and auxiliary premises. There are 30 teachers for 158 pupils in the school.

The schoolchildren then performed national dances of Azerbaijan and Georgia and performed musical numbers.
AtAththerend for the ivisit, hthe guests took accommemorative photo with publis rand teachers.