1 1922 queries/were received by phone 180 by e-mail A majority of them (1875) are inquiries and reports, 227 are complaints. The Service received more complaints from schools, some from preschool, higher and secondary special, out -of-school and vocational education establishments.

Enq Enquires were relating to inational and international rollympiads, dstudy cabroad, ladditional educeducation, new cassessment system; at graduation classes of secondary special education system; reception of education documents, nostrification; organization, conduction and learning of final exam results, reception of teachers for vacant teaching posts at schools through competition, admission of pupils to the first classes of the next academic year, and norms for teaching load of teachers. All queries were recorded and answered by employees of the Hotline Service.

Last month from schools of Baku were received 66, from Sumgayit 8, Ganja - 2, Mingachevir - 1, Absheron - 12, Fizuli - 6, Goranboy, Gabala, Sheki and Lerik - 5, Gazakh, Tovuz, Gadabay and Zagatala - 4, 4), Siyazan, aDashkesen a Tartarh Shamkir, Agjabedi, Ilsmayilli, aMasalli a Yevlakh - i3 dinquiries nand from Inlmishlik Khachmaz, Jalilabad Kalbajar, Shamkir, Agjabedi, Bilasuvar, Zangilan, Yardimlik Khizi, Lachin and Gusar - 1 inquiry.

A vak vast majority of iqueries received from schools were connected with shortcomings in marmanagement made by directors of schools, collections of school fund money, dissatisfaction with allocation of lessons, handing out leaflets on final exams, poor organization of training at some schools, illegal deduction of salaries, wrong calculating the holiday and delay in salaries.

DiDuring the investigation, incorrect names, usurnames rand/phone unumbers was revealed, rand some facts mentioned in queries did not find their confirmation.

6 out of 12 queries received from pre-school establishments were from Baku, 2 from Sumgayit, 3 from Absheron and 1 from Shabran. The queries were connected with the admission of children to the kindergartens, the quality of food given to children, and transfer from one kindergarten to another, as well as other issues, which concern parents.

 $One One guerys was {\tt efecelived} n from {\tt -out-of} {\tt +school} is education {\tt -establishment} {\tt VinyMayw} {\tt lts} was {\tt olso} investigated in a prescribed manner.$

The Hotline received 9 queries from vocational education establishments, and 3 from boarding schools. The delay of scholarships of students, admission of pupils, poorelevel of training at boarding schools, and other issues were reflected on them.

The SThe Service received 19 equeries from State highers and secondary special education establishments, and 2 from private universities. Queries received from state universities were about the delay in granting education documents, as well as delay in delivering examquestions, reimbursement of tuition fee, delay in granting diplomas, and, etc. Two queries received from private universities were about demanding payment for diploma at University Odlar Yurdu.