

---

Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with a group of Azerbaijani students studying in Great Britain within the framework of state programs on education abroad on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of national leader Heydar Aliyev. The meeting was also organized to exchange views on education and future opportunities.

During the meeting, it was specially emphasized that Heydar Aliyev supported Azerbaijani students to study in the best universities of the time both during the Soviet period and during the years of independence. It was noted that for the sake of the future of Azerbaijan, attention to education is still an important part of the great leader's legacy.