

---

Speaking at the opening event, Education Minister Misir Mardanov noted that mathematicians from over 20 countries, including, Turkey, Russia, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Kyrgyzstan, Iran, the USA, France, Malaysia, Ukraine and Georgia, took part in the congress. The Minister informed that the Turkic World Mathematical Society (TWMS) is an international organization, which was founded in Elazig, Turkey, in 1999. The congress has held three congresses since 1999. At the last Congress was made a decision on holding the IV Congress in Baku. Having noted that he was selected a chairman of the Organizing Committee of the congress, the Minister added Science and Education Minister of Kazakhstan, Bakytzhan Zhumagulov, MP of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Prof. Kilishbay Bisenov, President of National Academy of Science of Kazakhstan Murat Jurinov, representative of the Royal Spanish Mathematical Society Pedro A. Guil and others are among more than 300 participants.

The Minister underscored contributions made by the chairman of the Turkic World Mathematical Society, Science and Education Minister of Kazakhstan B. Zhumagulov to the Society and noted that Kazakhstan is representing in the Congress by the largest delegation consisting of about 100 members.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov underlined the organization of the IV Congress in Baku proofs that the image of Azerbaijan has improved before the international community.

Speaking at the Congress, the chairman of the Turkic World Mathematical Society, Science and Education Minister of Kazakhstan B. Zhumagulov, gave information on the organization. He estimated integration of scientists from different countries as a success, and noted that the problems existing in the contemporary world can only be solved by a joint effort of scientists from many countries. He underlined the need to create efficient environment for scientific activities, and to implement wide range of initiatives. At the end, he thanked for the organization and conduction of the congress in a high level, as well as put forward some proposals.

Honorary president of TWMS Hilmi Hacisalihoglu, Director of Institute of Mathematics and Information Technologies of Uzbekistan Shavkat Ayupov, Rector of Firat University of Turkey Feyzi Bingol, Rector of Liepaja University of Janis Rimsans and others wished success to the congress.

At the congress, which will be held until July 13, will be given presentations on actual mathematical problems on 8 categories.