The European Physics Olympiad was held in Hannover, Germany. Our team of 5 students successfully performed in the above-mentioned competition and won one silver, one bronze medal and one incentive award.

ArAmong them the isilven medal was vawarded to Murad Abdulkarim, a 111th grade student of the physics, mathematics and informatics biased Lyceum of Bakuccity, the bronze medal was vawarded to Ugur Azim, a 110th gradet student of the Baku Turk Turk is he Lyceum of Turkey a Dayanat Vakf and the bronze medal. Mto a Murad Ismismayilov, 1a t10th a grade student of the physics, a mathematics and informatics biased Lyceum in Guba district.

It should be noted that our students have been participating in this Olympiad since 202018 and to date have won 21 silver medals, 19 bronze medals, and 16 incentive awards.