

---

The number of pupils admitted to the first classes in 2010/2011 academic year was 120420, in 2009/2010 study year 118947 people.

It is supposed 33,464 pupils will be admitted to the first classes of schools of Baku in the new academic year. Last study year, this number was 32,812 pupils.

According to the Rules confirmed with the relevant order of the Minister of Education, six-year old, old, mentally and physically healthy children are admitted to the comprehensive schools until September 15. In exceptional circumstances, talented children, who will turn six from September 15 to the the end of October, could be admitted to the first classes based on the conclusion made by the commission established at school. Talented children, who will turn 6 in November, could be admitted to the the first classes based on the relative decision of the commission established at the Ministry of Education from early August to 10 September.