

---

At first, conference attendees visited the Alley of Honours to pay a tribute to the memory and lay a wreath at the tomb of national leader Heydar Aliyev. They also put flowers at the grave of the prominent ophthalmologist, academician Zarifa Aliyeva.

The conference was attended by Education Minister Misir Mardanov, deputy chairman of Free Trade Union Committee of Education Workers of Azerbaijan Shaig Asgerov, head of Binagady district Executive Power Ali Gojayev, MPs, representatives of different state and non-government organizations, famous scientists and teachers of the Republic, heads of comprehensive schools, preschool and out-of school establishments, and teachers.

Having congratulated conference attendees on the start of a new academic year, Director of Baku city Education Department Naila Rzagulyeva gave a presentation on the theme of "Results of 2010/2011 academic year and upcoming responsibilities for the new academic year." Noting the government is providing each citizen with qualitative and continuing education, N. Rzagulyeva said that there were created comprehensive conditions to improve the quality of education. According to her, due to the care and attention of President Ilham Aliyev, as well as support of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation there were implemented radical reforms in the education field. She noted that an important phase of these reforms has come, and processes of renewal are implemented in the requirements for the content and organization of education.

Director of Baku city Education Department have also gave detail information on achievements gained over the past academic year, upcoming responsibilities and gave extensive analysis of shortcomings and problems.

Next, director of school No. 279 of Baku Ogtay Samadov, deputy director of school - lyceum No. 883 Yashar Hamidov, teacher of nursery - kindergarten No. 169 Tabiat Valiyeva, chairperson of Parent Commission of Kindergarten - School - Lyceum Complex Saida Ismayilova, English language teacher of school No. 87 Natavan Dashtiyeva, and Laman Mammadova, who has scored 700 points in the entrance exams, have delivered a speech talking on successive development of the country's education, events held over the last year and gained achievements.

Speaking at the event Education Minister Misir Mardanov congratulated workers of education on the "Knowledge day." He estimated as positive the activity of Baku city Education Department highlighting its successes, which are rising year by year.

Education Minister noted that the great leader Heydar Aliyev has always been respectful to teachers and attached great importance to the education. He spoke in detail about the care and attention paid by the President Ilham Aliyev to the development of science and education fields of Azerbaijan, as well as events held by the Heydar Aliyev Foundation in this direction.

The Minister noted that today, the country has number of exemplary schools, competent and capable teachers, who teach creatively. He also touched upon other important problems that need to be solved, and gave his advices to education workers.

At the end of the conference, there was demonstrated a film devoted to the works done in the education field, achieved successes and activity of Baku city Education Department.