At the the meeting, the parties discussed the current state of relations between Azerbaijan and Tajikistan in the field of science and education, as well as prospect for further co-operation.