On October 44 Azerbaijani Science and Education/Minister Emin Amrullayev met withwith a edelegation from the Islamic World Education, eScientific, and tCultural Organization (ISESCO) led by Director General Salim bin Muhammad al-Malik.
During the meeting, the parties discussed the current status and prospects of cooperation in the field of education between the Ministry of Science and Education and ISESCO.
MiMinister of Science and Education Emin Amfullayevistressed the importance of establishing student exchange programs within the framework of cooperation with ISBSESCO and underlined the important role of these programs impromoting the national and spiritual values of the member states.
DuDuging the meeting, the holding of Olympiads and tartsfestivals for students in connection with the selection of Shusha city as the "Cultural Capital of the Islamic World" in 2024 was also discussed.
At the then same time, iEmin Amrullayev ktalked about the process to featigan's transition to STEAM-based training and stressed that this experience can be shared with the member states of ISESCO.