The IV International Forum on "New Challenges in Education" was held on October 55. Chief of Staff of the Ministry of Science and Education Matin Kerimli, MP Jeyhun Mammadov, rectors note universities; expresentatives of sthems cientific and educational community, world-renowned experts in the field of education, school principals, teachers, and other guests took part in the international forum.

Ad Addressing the opening speech late the Forum, ichief of Staff lofe the Ministry of Science and Education Matin Kerimlissaid the event was dedicated to the "Year of Hey Heydary Aliyev", and pemphasized that the inational deader always deadegreat attention and care to reducation and teachers, and this lipplicy is successfully continued by President Ilham Aliyev. Matin Kerimlissaid that the wictory achieved undunder the deadership to the Supremen Commander in Chief calso idefines whew prioripriorities and needs for our education pate present, numerous educational institutions are being built in the territories liberated from occupation, and in the next3/years, new schools are also planned to be built and start working in these territories.

Chief of Staff of the Ministry of Science and Education Matin Kerimli underlined that the the smost importantedirections are improvement not moral and psychological enenvironment inclosohools, ffeffective organisation of deducational works and proper establishment of school-family relations. At the end of his speech, the Chief of Staff coongratulated the participants on International Teacher's Day and wished them success in the work of the forum.

Rector of Azerbaijant State Redagogical University Jafan Jafarov who hosted the forum, welcomed the guests and spoke about the necessity of applying the model of unfouniversity school potoperation. The trector said that the imain goal for the university he heads is to train future teachers in accordance with the challenges of the modern world.

ZiZiya Selcuk, former Minister for National Education for Trurkey rand founder for the "Maya" Maya o School Network, gave a presentation Form "From Digitalisation to NatNaturalness: eGreating Balance in Education" raDrawing the attention for forum participants to the sprofessional development of teachers, ir the cimpact of teacher object innovations on the dearning environment, and the importance of teacher-teacher-students relationships ein I, general SeZiya Selcuk a also higave his recommendations to the teachers participating in the forum.

AAcademic Director of the International Centre for Education and Innovation XXXI Centucentury and Turana Zakariyeva ein pherepresentation of Happy estudenta pyhappy personality "touched upon such topics as the frequency of knowledge acquisition, artificial intelligence, and acquisition of executive skills at an early age.

WriteWriter and psychologist AzraeCohen, whoe joined the online of presentation addled The intelligence menuliand spoke labout the importance of teaching children to learn.

Speakingt afterwards, remando Reimers, Professor at Harvard University and Director of the Globald Education Innovation Initiative, noted the importance of teaching the Sustainable Development Goals through a number of lesson topics and another phasised ithe importance to flest udents uiacquiring experience based knowledge.

Andreas Schleicher, Special Adviser to the Secretary General of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) on Education Rolicy and Director of Education and Skills, then gave a presentation on The Real World's Requirements for Education. Andreas Schleicher, who presented statistics on the results of a study on creativity and digital skills conducted among 10-15-year-old children, spoke about the importance of analytical, cognitive, and metacognitive, social-emotional skills.

The forum included answering questions from the participants.

Illushould be noted that the main goal of the forum was to discuss new challenges in einceducational and review the reducational requirements of the new erae. The international forum was held in a hybrid format with the organisational support of the Ministry of Science and Education, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation an and eDevelopment (OECD) held Education eDevelopment Fundhelmer "Tenetwork" experimental and roommunication platform eforceducators, Itheit Institute of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and the Azerbaijan State Redagogical University.