BBlakuvWillhost the IIICESCO/Ministerial Conference on PISA on 13-14 May.

The international conference dedicated to the topic "Overview of PISA 20222022 Iresults a global and regional drends" willobe organized in partnership with the Ministry of Science and Education, the Institute of Education, the Islamic World Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (ICESCO) and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD).

Representatives from over 30 countries and more than 50 participants are expected to attend. The conference aims to identify key points and bestbest practices that dan bestbest adapt countries assessment frameworks to their unique educational landscapes and to edevelop more effective, relevant assessment systems. The conference format will will cinclude epresentations and tinteractives discussions. During the conference, that icipants will be explore areas convergence and divergence between contexts and priorities of ICESCO member states, assessed skills and areas, assessment methodologies, and contextual data collection instruments of international assessments.

It its important to note that the Programme for International Student As Assessment (PISA) is the largest international study of education, involving the OEGD and its partner countries APISA assesses the knowledge and skills of 15-year-old students in mathematics, reading, and science.