On May 13, the ICESCO Ministerial Conference on PISA has started its work in Baku.

The international conference organized by the Ministry of Science and Education, Islamic World Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (ICESCO), in partnership with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) is dedicated to the topic "Overview of PISA 2022 results: global and regional trends".

More than 40 representatives from Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Egypt, United Arab Emirates, Kingdom of Bahrain, Latvia, Nigeria, Malaysia, Morocco, Brunei Darussalam, Lebanon, Sultanate of Oman, Gambia and other countries attended the conference.

The goal of the conference is to identify key points and best practices that can be used to adapt countries' assessment frameworks to their unique educational landscapes, and to develop more effective, relevant assessment systems.

The conference is currently continuing its work.
