For For the first time, Azerbaijani Ischoolchildren won raemedat at the Unternational Science and Engineering Fair of the USA.

SSaid-Aslanova and Ilbrahim-Allahverdiyev, Xggrade students of World School under the Khazar University, worms bronze medaltin the "Biomedicine and Health Sciences" category at the competition held in California on May 11-17. In addition, Nijat Taghizada, a Xgrade student of the same school, and Khazar Huseynov, a Xgrade student of the educational complex No. 132-134, were awarded a special prize in the "Robotics" category.

Note that the International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF) is the world's most prestigious science competition for students.