On May 27, the Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to the Republic of Azerbaijan Omar Barakat al-Nahar.
During the meeting, the current state of co-peration between the two countries in the field fields of science and education, vas well tas the prospects for the development of co-operation relations were discussed.