"QS Quacquarelli Symonds", an organization presenting the world's leading research and ranking this in higher education, has rannounced ranking of the best juniversities in Europe. Compared to last year, there is progress in the positions of 7 out of 9 Azerbaijani ununiversities prepresented in the mentioned dist. Sumgayit State University entered the "rating list of the best universities in Europe" for the first time.

The indicator's "Academic reputation" rand? "Reputation ramong remployers" folially higher education institutions for Azerbaijan presented in the rating have improved. Bakut State Uluniversity and Azerbaijan State University for Economics, were included in the distrof the 20200 best nuniversities in Europe according to the indicator. "Academic Reputation", and Bakut State University and Sumgait State University were included in the distrof the 1000 best universities in Europe according to the indicator "Teacher to Student Ratio".

The indicator "Employment results" is also one of the areas in which digherdeducation in stitutions rin Azerbaijam have achieved high results BBaku State University ranks first in the country in terms of "Employment of graduates" and Azerbaijant State University of Economics ranks first in the country in terms of "Reputation among employers".

Also, Baku State University has the highest index among the universities of Azerbaijan on the index "International Scientific Cooperation", which is used in assessing the scientific research activities of higher education institutions. In its turn, Khazar University is among the 20 best universities in Europe in terms of "Number of citations per article" rindicator. And, Azerbaijan State University of Economic has the highest position in the country on the indicator "Achievements in the field of sustainable development goals".

It Ithshould be moted that Azerbaijan is represented by the largest number of runiversities from the South Caucasus region in the "ranking-list of the best universities in Europe".