

---

On July 18, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Swiss Confederation to the Republic of Azerbaijan Thomas Stähli.

The current state of relations between the two countries in the fields of science and education and prospects of cooperation were discussed at the meeting.