Outustudents successfully represented our country: at the international Physics
Olympiad (IPhO 2024) held in Isfahan, Islamic Republic of Iran, July 21-29.

230230 students from 46 countries competed with their knowledged and Iskills in physics at the Olympiad organized at Isfahan University of Technology.

At the rollympiad aconsisting to a check the ordinal and consisting to a check the rollympiad according to the ordinal and consisting to the ordinal and a check the rollympiad and a check the roll and

Thus, Ibrahim Valehli, the 10^{th} grade student of the "Kaspi" Lyceum, won a silver medal, Murad sismailov, Ithel 11^{th} grade student of physics, mathematics and ininformatics biased lyceum in Gubaicity, won a bronze medal, Ravani Najäfli, Ithe 11^{th} grade student of "Ahkara School" school-lyceum, and Adib Sattarov, Ithel 11^{th} grade student of a dyceum named after analcademician Zarifa Aliyeva, were awarded the motivational prize of the Olympiad.